Letter from our Grand Knight Brother Knights,

We had a nice turn out for our general meeting on April 10th. It was good to see Joe Joyce, Charlie Lyons and Richard Nodlinski as well as many other brothers who have not been to a meeting recently. We had a brief one hour meeting because of the new member information night that followed immediately.

Congratulations to Bill Windle for receiving a Blessed John Paul II Medallion from our Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson, for recruiting new members. Also to Jim Grove for being Knight of the month of March and to Matt and Chris Peterson for family of the month for February. This meeting's minutes will be sent out in the next couple of days.

I would like to give Dennis Harrington, Tony Magdalrno and Ray Coughlin a thank you for a terrific presentation for our Information Night. A prepared video explaining our inter-national Knights, than one showing what our local council does and charities it supports. There were some interested prospects and many of our members that found this to be very informative. I urge all to try and encourage fellow Divine Savior members in becoming "Knights".

We have cancelled our next Pancake breakfast but we will still have the Blood drive. This was the last one for this Colombian year, watch for the next calendar of events that will be sent to all from the next GK.

General Meeting on Tuesday, May, 1st @ 7:00pm

Mothers Day Roses after all masses on May 12-13

Golf Tournament on Monday May 21st.

If you are interested in running for an office, please contact Bob Reilly at 988-1040.

Thank you all for what you do and God Bless your families,

Tony Aiello, GK

“Making a difference for life”

What can you expect from your Knights of Columbus field agent?

THERE ARE MANY FINE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN THE MARKET PLACE TODAY...

So why should you entrust your life insurance needs, and those of your family to the Knights of Columbus?

In it's credit rating of the Knights of Columbus, Standard & Poor's rating was based upon the following strengths: extremely strong capital, very strong competitive position, extremely strong liquidity and historically strong profitability.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades, along with what S&P described as 'a distinct competitive advantage, a loyal customer base and a unique rapport with clients' is because we have been steadfastly committed to our motto, 'Protecting Families for Generations' by means of 'life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.'

That commitment is an essential core value of the Knights of Columbus, and our core values permeate all levels of our marketing program. Our 'Marketing Code of Ethics' is modeled after the Ten Commandments and includes statements such as 'Thou shall present honestly and accurately, all facts necessary to enable a member to make an informed decision.'

Our ethical principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: 'In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself.'

That's what you can expect from me, your Knights of Columbus field agent.

I welcome the opportunity to present to you and your wife, honestly and accurately, all facts necessary for you to make a solid decision.

Call anytime at (916) 470-9205 or write to me at tony.magdaleno@kofc.org. I am yours full-Time.

Fraternally,
"My Brother's Keeper"

Pro-Life Activities for May 2012

If a mother has the right to choose to kill her innocent unwanted baby, why doesn't this child, when grown to be an adult, have the right to kill her innocent unwanted old mother or father who is making it inconvenient for her lifestyle? The "right to die" movement has nothing to do with people wanting to die; it has everything to do with people wanting to kill those whom they believe would be better off dead.

The following are this month's Pro-Life activities for Knights and their families to participate in:

Over 800 babies have been saved this year in the nationwide effort during 40 Days for Life which ended on April 1st. The new mothers were spared the life-long pain which accompanies abortion. We also know of 69 workers who quit their abortion jobs and 22 clinics which closed during this period. Although the life-saving, peaceful, prayerful 40 Days for Life ended, we will continue praying and helping women choose life along the public sidewalk in front of the Women's Health Specialist abortion clinic at 1750 Wright Street, (Mon-Sat), or the Roseville Planned Parenthood abortion clinic at 729 Sunrise Blvd (Thru). We spend 1-2 hours praying the rosary and other prayers in front of the clinic, while counselors attempt to inform the clinic's clients of the irreversible effects of abortion. Our 'being there' has a very positive impact on both the clients and staff of the clinic as well as the people driving by on the adjacent busy roads.

Catholics-For-Life meet on the 2nd Thursday each month (May 10th) at the Marian Center of St Philomene's at Bell Street & El Camino starting with the Pro-Life Rosary at 6:00 pm. (Contact June @ juneschott@msn.com)

An all night Vigil for Life is held the 1st Friday-Saturday of each month at St Rose Catholic Church, 5961 Franklin Blvd, Sacramento, starting with Mass at 7:30 pm. In May it will be on the 4-5th, while in June it will be held on the 1st-2nd. (Contact June @ juneschott@msn.com)

The Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home giant yard sale will be held May 4th-12th. Please donate any saleable items to the home located on Lang Street, or call Mike Schaefer for pickup.

Monthly Pro-Life Mass is held every 2nd Tuesday of each month at St Philomene's

Catholic Church at 2428 Bell Street. (Contact Sally Fisher at 721-0378.)

The 20th Anniversary Dinner celebrating opening the Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home will be held at the Dante Club on September 16th, 2012. Raffle prizes and baskets are needed. Please keep this pro-life date noted on your calendar. (Call Kathy Baxter at 985-7524.)

Reflections from the Chaplain

Fr. Roman Mueller, S.D.S.

“One major aspect of being a faithful Knight of Columbus is to live as one who infuses secular society with Christian values.”

Fr. Roman

Dear Knights and Families of Knights:

The interplay between what goes on in the civil/secular world and the various religious beliefs of people is a well-worn dynamic. Our present day is no exception, except, perhaps for some Catholic politicians who make reference to their religious faith. However, when we hear some of these people speak with seeming certainty and clarity of knowledge of Catholic Teaching, some of all political persuasions are at considerable variance with Church Teaching.

Therefore, we need to be most careful to what degree their claim to be faithful to church teaching is actually true. As we all know, it is only human to pull a quote or even just a phrase from here and there to support our cause. However, a faithful Catholic would be hard-pressed to assert that the social teaching of the church is not rather clear. Some would argue that the Church shouldn't be involved with these issues; that would be a position rather contrary to several documents of Vatican Council II.

One would find it impossible to find in official church teaching support for allowing the inequality of wealth to be held up as the ideal. In fact, Church Teaching supports bringing about greater equality between the rich and the poor. Some will react to that statement and call it something that in their minds threatens our capitalistic system. I hope we can discuss these issues and teachings without putting them in an inflexible frame. We are not talking about communism, and certainly not atheistic communism. We are not talking about anything remotely of a totalitarian nature. What we are talking about is what the Church teaches about taking care of the needy.

Sadly, many Catholics are quite unfamiliar with the social teaching of the Church. For instance, the Wall Street Journal recently printed an article about how a certain national budget proposal was faithful to the encyclical letter written by Pope Leo XIII in the late 1800s. The focus of that papal document was on the rights of workers to bargain collectively and to form unions so that they as workers would be treated humanely, justly, as children of God. It also addresses issues regarding the “haves” and have “nots”. Am I asking that we all be of one mind on these issues? No, but can we develop a better way of listening to one another in an effort to truly understand each other's convictions? We may differ, and often differ very much, but we are called, nonetheless to take care of the less fortunate. How we go about doing that may be a matter of debate, but the call to see to the needy is nonetheless a call to all Catholics.

Do I expect all Catholics to read all the Papal letters of the last 120 years dealing with social issues before we make an assessment about various political proposals? Hardly, but a good place to start would be the latest Catechism of the Catholic Church and the pages dedicated to this very important topic.

One major aspect of being a faithful Knight of Columbus is to live as one who infuses secular society with Christian values. So, I end with a question. What is it that the staff of our parish can do to help bring as much clarity to our Church's teaching as possible so that as we tangle with complex issues we do so in the most Catholic way possible?

Fr. Roman Mueller, S.D.S.

Behold Your Mother: The Motherhood of Mary Redefined by Dr. John Roskoski Source: Mother Of All People/A Marian E-zine

Throughout the Gospel traditions Mary has always been identified as the “mother of Jesus.” This definition of Mary’s motherhood is without question and, on its most basic level, suggests a powerful relationship between Mary and Jesus, and His ministry. However, in John 19:25–27 Mary’s role is redefined. Furthermore, this new definition, or redefinition, of Mary’s motherhood rests on cultural, scriptural, and linguistic authority.

The setting of Jesus’ words, the Cross, which redefines Mary’s motherhood, establishes a cultural authority for her new role. The cross was Jesus’ place of death, as verified by official Roman witnesses and countless onlookers. In the Ancient Near East, the words of a dying man were given great authority. Therefore, any words spoken by Jesus from the Cross would be ascribed a special significance. On the surface, Jesus’ words could be interpreted as a final detail of a devoted son entrusting the care and provision for his mother to a close and trusted friend. That Jesus, in the moments before His death and in tremendous agony, thought to care for his mother reflects the love he had for her. It was also consistent with the Biblical view of family. The family was a religious unit and the sense of solidarity was extremely close, as the individual depended on the family for support and protection. Life was not conceived as possible outside of the family institution. Therefore, Jesus established a core network of support and protection for the Beloved Disciple and Mary when he entrusted them to each other that was wholly consistent with the cultural dictates of his people.

In the Ancient Near East, the words of a dying man were given a particular authority. The words were seen as, perhaps, akin to prophetic speech and would be expected to find fulfillment. In this instance, Jesus is uttering words which would change the course of the lives of the Beloved Disciple and Mary, and therein find fulfillment. It is in this moment, when Jesus establishes this maternal bond between Mary and the Beloved Disciple, which we see the beginning of the redefining of Mary’s motherhood.

In this scene, the Gospel juxtaposes two opposite emotional images; grief and joy. Mary, undoubtedly, was filled with grief and sorrows watching the son of her body die on the gibbet of the cross. Yet, in this horrific moment she is given another son, a son who represents all the followers or disciples of Jesus. Her grief will now be turned to joy.

Many scholars, as has this work, argued for the representational aspect of the Beloved Disciple, and of Mary, in regards to the Christian community. Many of these masterful works are forward oriented, or beginning with the Cross and moving into the age of the Church. We take no issue with this argument, but we also suggest that the representational nature of the Beloved disciple and Mary is foreshadowed in the Gospels of Mark and Matthew in their accounts of Jesus’ family. As the family of faith sat around, or encircled, Jesus in Mark and Matthew, now the Beloved Disciple and Mary are at the feet of Jesus, at the foot of the Cross. Now, the Disciple and Mary form the inner circle around Jesus and they are now the core of Jesus’ family of faith. Mary is a model for this family not simply because of her blood ties to Jesus, but because of her obedience to God’s will and her faith which she had shown throughout her life. Therefore, Mary is now deemed the mother of all the followers of Jesus and her motherhood is redefined in terms of discipleship.

Overall, the Beloved Disciple is depicted as the ideal and representational disciple in the Fourth Gospel. His actions and response to Jesus in faith secures his position in the new family of Jesus. Mary is not only a disciple but is Jesus’ mother, with all the attendant images of love and nurturing. From the Cross she is made mother of all Christians, always ready to accept, enlarge her tent– and heart– to accommodate her children, given to her through faith in her son, Jesus Christ.

April Knight of the Month– Jim Grove

When Dennis Harrington decided to move on as editor of our newsletter, we were fortunate to have one of our brothers come forward and assume the position as our new editor. Jim Grove is a retired teacher in the San Juan school district with a passion for chemistry and photography. Building on a fantastic news letter, Jim is improving on it every month with additional articles, ideas and suggestions. We have submitted our newsletter to "State" for an award at the convention next month.

Please join me in congratulating Jim Grove as our March "Knight of the Month".

April Family of the Month– Matt Peterson

Matt Peterson and his wife Chris are both members of Divine Savior Parish. Matt has been a Knight for only a few years yet during this short time he has been very active. Matt currently serves as Outside Guard for our Council. He has been the chairman of two very successful e-waste collections and document shredding events. Matt's wife Chris has helped out at both of these events and they both have been active in other major parish events such as the Treasure Fest. Matt and Chris are a fine example of a Catholic family and well deserving of this award.

Please join me in congratulating Matt and Chris Peterson as our "March Family of the Month"

'Be Not Afraid!' Membership Campaign

Congratulations to Bill Windle for receiving two Blessed John Paul II Medallions from our Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson, for recruiting new members.

The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council is conducting the "Be Not Afraid!" Membership Campaign in honor of the Beatification of Blessed John Paul II. Participating in the campaign is easy! All a member has to do is recruit one new member! You can get two medallions like Bill by recruiting a new member one month, and another new member in a different month.

Knightly Interview–Mike Knepshield

How long have you been a catholic and a member of the Knights of Columbus?

I was born into the Church & became a Knight in February, 1983 at the Ben Rolwes Arlington Council #4793 in Riverside, California.

Why did you become a knight?

I was interested in becoming more involved in Church activities as a young man & I was personally asked to join by several Brothers of the Council. I also had two uncles who were Knights in the Midwest.

What do you like best about the Knights of Columbus?

I enjoy the very strong feeling of Catholic brotherhood & acceptance, & the strong emphasis on church & community involvement.

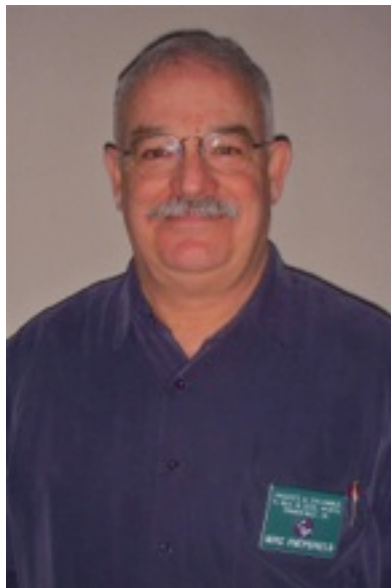

What are some of the activities or programs you have been involved with as a knight?

I had previously been involved in the church environment set up, but have missed a few due to work schedule. I have also participated in the 40 Days for Life event for the past two years. I facilitate RCIA & adult education sessions, & while doing so I always wear the Knight's name badge or the Knight's pin.

This year I hope to work on the golf tournament.

What are some areas you would like to see our council get involved in that were not already doing?

Members of our Council are involved in a great many things already, but I'd like to see more involvement in the Men's Retreat, which occurs for our parish in the early spring. This is an excellent opportunity for men to further their personal relationship with Jesus within a group of similar minded men.

How do you think we can reach out to more catholic men and bring them into the Knights of Columbus?

Giving a personal invitation, usually after Mass or during a church social activity, is the best way to reach most men in the parish; the Council could also make a display sign that could be put in the lobby of the church during Sunday Masses listing very basic information about the Knights & a contact person.

Describe what you do for a living or what you did for a living before you retired.

I was a U.S. Treasury law enforcement Special Agent for 27 years & retired in 2004; I now work part time at American River Ace Hardware on Greenback Lane.

What other areas besides Sacramento have you lived?

Anne & I moved to the Sacramento area in 1983; I have lived in Riverside, California, & El Paso, Texas; I grew up in Indianapolis, Indiana & moved to the Detroit, Michigan area during high school. I lived there until I moved to El Paso.

What do you for fun in your spare time?

I enjoy gardening & reading, & Lou Anne & I are trying to devote more time to traveling.

Do you have any favorite sport teams?

The Detroit Tigers & the Oakland A's.

Sir Knight Micheal Wagner- Outgoing Financial Secretary

Sir Knight Micheal Wagner is a charter member of our council, having transferred from Folsom when our council was started. He has served as Financial Secretary from the beginning, some 7 ½ years. As FS, he holds one of the most important positions and is responsible for maintaining membership records, creating and monitoring the council budget, collecting dues and 365 contributions, managing the cash box at most functions, and submitting reports to chapter, state and supreme. He represents us at chapter meetings all over northern California and at the annual state conventions.

You'll see Mike at virtually all council functions where he assumes roles of key importance. One of his recent passions is the Wheelchair Mission. Mike traveled to Mexico City in 2010 as part of a national team which distributed wheelchairs to the needy in that city. In 2011, he again went on the wheelchair mission to Mexico, this time with Bill Windle; and this time they returned with "the pig".

Micheal is dedicated to the success of our council and to our parish. He is an usher at 4:30 mass. Mike and wife, Loesje, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary this summer. They have two adult children and thoroughly enjoy sharing their time with their grandchildren. They also enjoy traveling throughout the US and Canada.

Welcome Jeff Dardis

K of C Eagle Scout Presentation

On Saturday, April, 14th, Grand Knight Tony Aiello, presented a certificate of congratulations to Robbie Cunha, son of Rob and Jennifer Cunha, for attaining the rank of "Eagle Scout". At the early age of 14, Robbie achieved this award for his Scout Leadership, Boy Scout awards, many Merit badges, Eagle project and Community activities. Robbie is deemed to be successful in any position that he chooses in the future.

Past Grand Knight and Eagle Scout Dan Freeman also presented Robbie a certificate from Supreme Knight Carl Anderson and Council Grand Knight, Tony Aiello. It was noted that PGK Freeman has been an proud Eagle Scout since 1953, over 59 years.

A big congratulation to Robbie Cunha and his devoted family for a job well done.

Directors Reports

Tom Jones- New Financial Secretary

Hello Brother Knights, I'm Tom Jones the new Financial Secretary of Fr. Neil W. Seidl Council 13672 as of 19 March 2012. Micheal Wagner and I have been conducting a turnover of the position for the last few weeks and are nearly complete with all details. I am hopeful that I can fill these big shoes. I want to thank Micheal for eight years of outstanding and dedicated service in this challenging position. When you see Micheal please thank him for steering the Council's finances in such an exemplary manner.

In September, the council set a goal of $7,500 (50 wheelchairs) for donation to the American Wheelchair Mission by the 2012 state convention. As of April, we not only met the goal but exceeded it by one wheelchair; a total donation of $7,659. I want to thank you for helping make our goal on behalf of those that will receive mobility. Hopefully, our wheelchairs will be in the container distributed in Mexico this October.

Dennis Harrington-Membership Director

After our General Meeting for April, Dennis Harrington, Tony Magdaleno and Ray Coughlin put together our first K of C Information for this year. A series of short videos highlighting some of the international charitable works of our brother knights was shown.

A power point presentation was used to show what our local council does and the charities it supports. Many of our current members as well as new prospective candidates found this to be very informative. All knights are urged to encourage fellow Divine Savior men in becoming "Knights".

Bill Manos-Youth Director

Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 7th from 11 am -12 pm, was a success with approximately 100 children of all ages participating. I want to thank Gayle & Samantha Manos for stuffing 1500 plastic eggs and Brother Ray C., Tom Jones, Allen Brown, and one of our soon to be Knight's, Jeff Dardis for helping with the egg hunt. There were two youths from the CYM, Sherry and Haily who also helped hide the eggs and assisted the toddlers with finding eggs. Also a big thanks to Tom Jones daughters who helped hide some of the eggs as well.

Next month, 5/18 - 5/20, a Knight from our council will be helping the Girl Scouts work on their religious medal award, Mary 1st Disciple, at the Marelllo Youth Retreat Center in Loomis.

Ad Hoc Membership Committee Update

As part of the Council 5 Year Strategic Review an Ad Hoc Membership Committee was formed to brainstorm and bring forward recommendations on ways the Council might increase new membership and enhance current member participation.

The Ad Hoc Committee reported their recommendations to a follow up Strategic Review Meeting and will be providing an overview at the General Business Meeting in May.

Many thanks to the Ad Hoc Committee Members; Mike Wagner, Joe Luchi, Bill Manos, Dennis Harrington, Bill Windle, Ray Coughlin and Tom Jones. Below is a summary of the Ad Hoc Committee recommendations:

Prayer for the Deceased

God our Father, Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ, Who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family, to sing Your praise forever and ever. Amen.
